HISTORIC SCENES.

Alice and the Caterpillar. The Paterkiller and the Society Child looked at each other for some time in silence; at last the Paterkiller put down his judge's notes of the case, and, passing his hand over his wig, addressed her in a puzzled, hopoless voice.

"Who are you?" said the Paterkiller. This was not an encouraging opening for a conversation. The Society Child replied, rather tragically, 'I-I hardly know just at present-nt least I know who I was a few days ago, but I think I must have been changed several times since then.'

. What do you mean by that?' said the Paterkiller sadly. Explain yourself ! 'I can't explain muself, I'm afraid, said the Society Child, because I'm not myself any longer, you sea, 'I don't see,' said the Paterkiller.

the Society Child replied, very woofully, for I can't understand it myself, to begin with; and having so many different fathers in a day is very confusing."

'I'm afraid I can't put it more clearly,"

* It isn't,' said the Paterkiller, referring to a newspaper file of old divorce cases.

'Well, perhaps you haven't found it so yet,' said the Society Child, 'but when your have to turn to a father who says your other father is not the sort of father that my girl's father would care to have for hisdaughter's father, but he himself is a father of whom the other father ought to feel proud to have for his daugther's father, and, further, that one might take him for a father or go farther and fate worse-why, you'd find it most amazingly

Not a bit, said the Paterkiller, trying. to comfort hor.

Well, perhaps your filial affection isn't torn in quite se many directions as mine, said the Society Child; 'all I know is, it feels very distracting to me.'

"Yes!" said the Paterkiller wearily. But the point is, are you You at all? In other words, who are you?"

Which brought shom back again to the beginning of the conversation. The Society Child felt a little irritated at the Paterkiller's making such very short remarks, and she drew herself up and said, very gravely, 'I think children ought to know who their parents are without going to law about it."

"Why?" said the Paterkiller. Here was another puzzling question; and as the Society Child could not think of any convincing reason, and as her poor little heart was very sad and miserable at all this search for her parents, she turned

'Come back!' the Paterkiller called One SINGER SEWING MACHINE after her. 'I've something important

This sounded promising, certainly. The Society Child turned and came back again. Keep your father, said the Patelkiller, 'I will if I know which,' sighed the Society Child. 'Is that all?'

'No,' said the Paterkiller.

The Society Child thought she might as well wait, as she had nothing else to do, and perhaps after all the Paterkiller might tell

TO PREVENT CROUP.

DEGIN in time. The first symptom is hoarseness, this is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough, which is easily recognized and will never be forgotten by one who has head it. The time to act is when the child first becomes hourse. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given, all tendency to croup will soon disappear.
Even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. There is no danger in given this remedy as it contains nothing injurious. It always cures and cures quickly. For sale by All Dealers: WATKINS Ltd., General Agents.

therations in the Aids to Navigation at the Woosena Outer Bur.

WATTH reference to Notice to Mariners No. 167 (Special), dated the 6th April, 1903, Notice is bereby given that, owing to the narrowness of the present deep water channel across the Woosung Outer Bar, the following additions and alterations have been made in the Aids to Navigation.

A WHITE POLE, surmounted by a circular shape, from which a Red Light is exhibited, has been creeted on Princes' Wharf, which, when kept in line with Woosung Lighthouse, leads midway between the Lismore Wreck Light-boat and the 12-foot contour of the Woosung Spit, this being the line of deepest water The two lights in line bear S. 76° 33' W

The WOOSUNG LIGHT remains White from the bank of the Yangtze to the N.W.-ward of the Lighthouse to S. 22° W. HOTEL ORAIGIEBURN. It has been altered to GREEN from S. 22° W. to S. 64° 50' W., and to RED from S. 64° 50' W. to the left (or Wer ern)

The FORT BUOY has been shifted 700 feet S. 47° 40' W. from its former position, and moored in 15 feet at Low Water of Spring Tides; from it, the Woosung Lighthouse now bears S. 87° W., distant 4.9

A 10-FOOT CONICAL BUOY painted in Red and Black Vertical Stripes and surmounted by a Black Spherical Cage has been moored in 18 feet at Low Water of

Spring Tides on the North-eastern edge of the Woosung Spit; and, from it, the Woosung Lighthouse bears S. 62° 15' W., distant 10.1 cables. The least water at present on the line BATTERIES, CHEMICALS, between the Outer end of Princes' Wharf and the 10 foot Bucy placed on the North- INSULATORS, eastern edge of the Woosung Spit is 10 feet; and, on the eastern edge of the Green Sector, 11 feet at Low Water of

The OUTER BAR SIGNALS now indicate the depth of water on the line when Woosung Light and the Red Light; on Princes' Wharf are in transit. DIRECTIONS.

As the narrow part of the deep water channel across the Woosing Outer Bar is abreast of the Lismore Wreck Light-boat, extending from 2 cables outside to 2 cables inside of her, inward bound vessels can afford to open the leading marks to the northward as soon at they are 2 cables inside the Light-boat.

Outward bound vessels should sicer to pass I cable off the Fort Buoy, and then gradually come on to the line of leading CAUTION.

There is from 2 to 3 feet less water than that signalled between the 10-foot buoy off the Woosung Spit and a point 700 feet north of the Lismore Wreck Light-boat. Vessels taking up an anchorage outside Woosung are requested to avoid so doing near the line of the Outer Bar Leading

The Origin of Pinkerton's.

Pinkerton's celebrated Detective gency, which was engaged by Mr. Flower' Presecution Committee to effect the arres of Whitaker Wright in Ne York, has wo itself a world-wide reputation during recent years, as we remarked yesterday. In the primitive days of banking an enormous number of counterfeit notes were in circulation, and by chance, while seeking poles and stayes for his trade, Pinkorton droppe l across the lair of a band of forgers on BII island in Fox River. He informed the sheriff, and the band was broken up but the counterfeit notes did not decrease. In consequence, Allan Pinkerton was commissioned by his fellow citizens of Dundee to try and stop it. By an accident he came into contact with the head of the gang and bluffed him into making an appointment with a view to doing business. This man, Craig | which was very largely attended, as well as by name, offered him a job to work the entire 'western field' on a commission basis. the only condition being that Pinkerton should put up a certain sum as security. This was subscribed by the citizens of pathy, Shroff, Mosars Bosanquet & Co., Dundee, and Pinkerton found himself in possession of ten thousand dollars' worth of admirably forged notes. The gang by this coup was broken up.

THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY This successful and highly popular remedy, as employed in the Continental Hospitals by Ricord, Roston, Johert, Velpeau, and others, combines all the desiderate to be sought in a medicine of the kind and surpasses everything bitherto employed.

THERAPION No. removes all discharges from the unnary organs, superseding injections, the use of which does irreparable harm by laying the foundation of stricture and other serious diseases.

THERAPION No. 2 for impurity of the blood, scurey, pimples, spots, blotches, pains and swelling of the joints, secondary symptoms, gout, theumatism, and all diseases for which it has been too much a fashion to employ mercury, sarsaparilla, &c., to the destruction of sufferers' teeth and ruin of health. This preparation purifies the whole system through the blood, and thoroughly eliminates every poisonous matter from the body.

THERAPION No.3 ness, and all the distressing consequences of early error, excess, residence in hot, unbenithy climates, ac. It possesses surprising power in restoring strength and vigour to the debilitated. THERAPION is sold by all Chemists and Merchants throughout the World.

Price in England 2/9 & 4/6. In ordering, state which of the three numbers is required, and observe above Trade Mark, which is a fac-simile of word THERAPION' as it appears on British Government Stamp (in white letters on a red ground) affixed to every package by order of His Majesty's Hon.

Commissioners, and without which it is a forgery.
